

Enhancing Your Success as a Clinician Educator at UCSF

Angel Chen, RN, MSN, CPNP

Calvin Chou, MD, PhD

Conan Macdougall, Pharm D

Brian Schwartz, MD

What is a Clinician Educator?

How do I get started on this pathway?

1. Make interests known (colleagues, leaders, mentors)
2. Volunteer to teach
  - Get trainee feedback
  - Get TOPed (AME)
3. Gain skills! (next slide)
4. Find a mentor with experience
5. Find a community (local and national)

How do I gain skills/expertise?

1. UCSF Center for Faculty Educators

- Workshops: teaching (all types), curriculum design, etc.
- Teaching Scholars Program

2. Learn the literature

- Read Med Ed Journals (Academic Medicine, etc...)
- ESCAPE, Med Ed Journal Club

3. Other external opportunities

How do I show my value, display my work, and get promoted?

1. Show value: share work at division meetings, ask to be nominated for teaching awards, SoMe
2. Display work:
  - Educator Portfolio (part of Advance)
  - Education Day, regional, national education meetings
3. Find sponsors – locally and nationally

Draft Milestones for Faculty in Medical Education at UCSF

